AGENDA ITEM:

Appointment of Chief Edwards to the Bull Run Alcohol Safety Action Program (ASAP) Policy Board

BACKGROUND / SUMMARY: The Bull Run ASAP program is the state-certified agency in Prince William County that provides probationary services to persons convicted of Driving Under the Influence of Alcohol/Drugs. It is self-funded by fees the offenders pay referred from Court. ASAP Programs are operated by an independent policy board, as authorized by VA Code 15.1-21. Bull Run ASAP is comprised of appointed representatives from 11 jurisdictions that have Law Enforcement agencies in Prince William and Loudoun Counties. All ASAP programs are regulated and certified by the Commission on VASAP in Richmond. The Program and Board members are fully covered by VML insurance policies. There is no liability to the Town for a Board member's participation. On April 5, 1988 the Dumfries Town Council adopted a resolution endorsing the establishment of a Policy Board for Bull Run ASAP. Since that time, the Town Council has appointed past Chiefs of Police to serve on the board. The appointment of Chief Edwards would fill the vacancy created when Chief Forker retired.
